SURVIVOR OF BRINDISI'S SINKING

She Was Shot Into Water As The Liner Sank

WITH HIDEOUS RAPIDITY

Decks Covered With Dead—Montenegrins Sang Their National Hymn Before Ship Disappeared, Then One Squad Shot The Others And Afterward Themselves—Struck Mine

(Associated Press Telegram)
Athens, Greece, Feb. 2.—Via London, Feb. 4.—"There is not any way to tell you so that you would understand the awful horror of the things I have seen and lived in the last month," said Marie Lemos, of Irving Park, Chicago, one of the Red Cross nurses who survived the sinking of the Italian steamship Brindisi, which recently struck a mine in the Adriatic. She continued:

"The hideous rapidity of the sinking of the steamship Brindisi with her decks covered with dead, myself shot into the water which was full of struggling youths trying to keep afloat by disappearing one by one within sight of land; the Austrian aeroplane attacks on San Giovanni De Medua and Durazzo; the ghastly sight of hundreds of Serbs falling exhausted and dying from hunger and cold along the road of their retreat through Albania—does not seem believable."

Miss Lemos is 22 years of age with broad features revealing her Bohemian extraction.

The Red Cross nurse left New York aboard the steamer Italia which carried $10,000 worth of Red Cross supplies destined for the relief of the Serbs. Among the passengers were 423 Montenegrin reservists, many of them being American citizens who were returning from the western states and even Alaska to fight for their country.

The Frothingham Red Cross unit consisted of Miss Stephanie Hample, and Frank Sinacek, both of New York, who were drowned; Dr. Edward Cunot, of Chicago, who disappeared after being rescued and is thought to have returned to Brindisi and George Gucha, and Marie Lemos, who are now at Athens.

"We struck a mine at 9:30 o'clock in the morning and the ship began to sink immediately," said Miss Lemos. "We tried to lower a boat but the ship heeled over so that everybody in the boat was thrown into the water."

STILL IN JAIL; WAKEFIELD IS WORRIED SOME

(Special to Advocate.)

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 4.—W. Curtis Wakefield, chief executive officer of the civic uplift league and in various cities throughout the United States, and who is regrettably remembered in Newark, O., by reason of numerous unpaid debts which he is alleged to have contracted while secretary of the Board of Trade there, in recorder's court here next Monday.

The case was set for that date today, after the prosecuting attorney had filed an information with the court, alleging that Wakefield swindled one of the "secretaries" of his American Civic Institute.

The "champion of civic purity," as Wakefield admitted himself to be, was arrested in Chicago, December 12, and brought back to Detroit, where he has been detained in the county jail awaiting trial ever since. He waived examination in police court and was unable to find friends willing to obtain his release by supplying a $500 bond.

To the correspondent for The Advocate, Wakefield when seen in his cell in the county jail, complained bitterly that his projects for "civic uplifting" were unappreciated, and that a "political prophet" as he asserted he was, was unhonored while politicians of another stamp were, he said, the "favorites of success."

Wakefield hinted that if his friends over in England knew of his plight they would be much concerned—in fact he cast the impression that if King Edward VII. could only realize his predicament he would arise from his crypt among all the other kings and queens in Frogmore chapel, and hasten to the Bank of England to forward a few hundred pounds to "Wee Willie." The civic uplifter said that he knew the late king socially and in a business way.

England's blue-bloods simply could not resist him, Wakefield intimated.

GERMAN PRIZE CAN STAY

To Force Vessel To Depart Now Would Be To Consign Her As Prey To British Cruisers, Prize Crew Would Sink Her Before Allow This—Those Released Hurry To New York

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Feb. 4.—Secretary Lansing indicated today that the United States had decided to hold that the Prussian-American treaty governs the case of the Appam as Germany contends, and that all that remained to be decided was the interpretation of the application of the treaty's terms.

The secretary disclosed further that the sole question to be decided by the interpretation was how long the Appam should be permitted to remain in American waters. The treaty guarantees to a German prize the right to come and go freely. If the Appam were forced to depart she would doubtless become the prey of British cruisers assembling outside the Virginia capes. If forced to depart, German officials have stated, the ship would be sunk to prevent her recapture by the British.

Germany is expected to contend that the treaty guarantees the Appam the right to remain safe in Hampton Roads until the case goes before the prize court for adjudication. Technically the ship does not become Germany's prize until such a court establishes the validity of her capture.

ALL ARE LANDED

And Hurry to New York—Appam

Admits Instructions.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Newport News, Va., Feb. 4.—Lieut. Berg and his small prize crew remained today aboard the former British passenger steamer Appam, brought into these neutral waters last Tuesday as a prize of war. The liner's passengers and original ship's company, taken prisoners when the steamer was captured by a mysterious German raider off the Canary Islands, January 15, were liberated last night by order of the United States government.

The passengers today were aboard the Old Dominion liner Jefferson, enroute for New York, where they were expected to arrive early tonight. The members of the crew, with the gun pointers taken from other British steamers, which the raiders sank before the Appam was overhauled, were in Norfolk awaiting the sailing of another New York steamer tonight. Both passengers and crew were transferred from the Appam to tugs and taken to Norfolk on river steamers.

The Appam is to remain at this port until the Washington government decides what disposition of her shall be made.

State Auditor Donahey Says Willis' Administration More Extravagant than that of Cox

(Associated Press Telegram)

Akron, O., Feb. 4.—"There is not one whit more of administrative economy in the Willis administration than there was in the Cox administration and it is my official opinion that there has been no genuine economy in either, for under the system that has grown up it is impossible."

This was the emphatic statement of State Auditor A. V. Donahey at luncheon address today before the Akron chamber of Commerce. The auditor said $2,344,000 more had been spent during the first year of the Willis administration than the last year of the Cox term.

Lack of system by which the governor can control the expenditures of state departments, and exorbitant appropriations by the general assembly, combined with "politics and the spoils system," were given by Auditor Donahey as the cause of governmental extravagance. He commended former Governor Cox for causing the assembly to reduce highway, schools and irreducible debt levies, and suggested that Gov. Willis should call a special session to reduce indirect taxation on corporations by $2,000,000 a year.

REWARDS OFFERED FOR DESTRUCTION OF ZEPPELIN RAIDERS

Paris, Feb. 4.—The French newspapers announce an offer of 25,000 francs to any aviator who succeeds in bringing down a Zeppelin within the French lines and an offer of 10,000 francs to any gunner in the anti-aircraft batteries who obtains the same result with shells.

LIEUT. BERG'S EXPLOIT CALLED BRILLIANT; CAPTURES GOVERNOR

Lieutenant Berg (foreground) and members of crew at Norfolk; Sir Edward Merewether.

In command of the captured British passenger steamer Appam when she dropped anchor at Hampton Roads was Lieut. Hans Berg of the German naval reserve, and to him were twenty-two members of a German raider. Berg is the hero of one of the most fantastic and thrilling tales of sea lore. From off the Madeira Islands, where the capture took place, he made his way across the entire Atlantic unmolested by the many British and French warships which crowd the seas, and arrived safely at Norfolk, Va., with the German naval ensign flying from the ship. Among the many prominent British officials whom he captured was Sir Edward Merewether, governor of Sierra Leone.

Germany Threatens United States if Lusitania Demands Are Pushed Too Far; Washington Is Reticent

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Feb. 4.—Secretary Lansing and Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, will confer on the Lusitania negotiations late today.

The conference with Secretary Lansing was arranged at the German ambassador's request.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Berlin, Feb. 4.—(Via London.) —Information reaching the Associated Press today indicates that under no circumstances will Germany admit the sinking of the Lusitania as an illegal act.

The new instructions forwarded to Ambassador von Bernstorff according to this information, contains simply one phrase of the new formulation of the proposed note of regret for the sinking of the Lusitania. The suggested sentence is short, consisting of only eight words and does not contain the word "illegal." It represents the extreme limit of Germany's concessions in the Lusitania case.

The view is entertained here that one of the most serious crises of the war has been in connection with the Lusitania case, and that it is impossible to foresee the outcome from any indications here. The result of the negotiations appear to hinge solely on the one word "illegal."

In the view of an agreement between the United States and Germany stand only these seven letters expressing the conception which President Wilson and Secretary Lansing must be embodied in the German formula expressing regret for the loss of American lives aboard the liner.

The Associated Press is informed positively and authoritatively that Germany will not and will not designate as illegal the sinking of a liner by a submarine.

Virtually no other difficulties in the way of settlement remain, and the new instructions forwarded to Ambassador von Bernstorff on Tuesday contain merely the new formula by which it is hoped to satisfy Washington without humiliating the country. Though the suggested sentence according to a reliable version, consists of only eight words and does not contain the word "illegal" or "unlawful," it goes otherwise to the farthest extent possible toward making American desires known.

The Krupp-Zeitung interprets "President Wilson's present warlike course" as dictated to some extent by political considerations. It says both the American and European press have regarded the President's attitude throughout the war as being influenced by the approaching campaign, but that no one considered such an interpretation of his utterances, especially unfriendly to him regarding it as a thing to be expected.

Assuming a more serious tone the Krupp-Zeitung adds: "At the moment it seems best to emphasize the point on which the German people are most completely agreed; namely, that nobody of course, would regard a conflict with the United States, as a slight matter but that we are all resolved nevertheless to take up on us this new enemy if it cannot be avoided without sacrificing our self-respect and dignity without laying upon ourselves letters that hinder our freedom of movement in the struggle for our existence."

The Vossische Zeitung and the Tageblatt, both hold that the announcement in regard to the latest instructions sent to Ambassador von Bernstorff are not so sweeping as generally supposed. The Tageblatt says the language used was very reserved and could not warrant any hasty or far-reaching conclusions.

Bucket Shops Raided Today in Various Cities at 11 O'Clock by Order of Banking Department

(Associated Press Telegram)

Columbus, O., Feb. 4.—Twelve so-called "bucket shops," in eleven Ohio cities, were raided simultaneously at 11 o'clock today by inspectors of the state banking department and the managers taken into custody on charges of violating the blue sky law and operating fraudulent securities jobbing agencies, according to announcement made shortly before noon by Harry T. Hall, state superintendent of banks.

The raids were made on two establishments in Youngstown, and one each in Dayton, Akron, Canton, Toledo, Marion, Steubenville, East Liverpool, Fremont, Norwalk and Piqua.

In each case the inspectors and county prosecutors, deputy sheriffs or police who assisted in the raids, were ordered to arrest all patrons found in the shops as well as the proprietors. Charges of gambling probably will be made against the patrons.

All the "bucket shops" except that in Dayton were associated in their business dealings, being connected by a single telegraph wire with a fraudulent "headquarters" in Pittsburgh. Superintendent Hall stated,

Fire Follows an Explosion in Canadian Parliament Building; Disastrous and Fatal Results

Most Ornate Piece of Gothic Architecture, at Ottawa, Costing $6,000,000 Scene of Confusion as a Burst of Flame from Reading Room Was Followed by Mad Rush of Members of Parliament, Spectators and Employees

FIVE KILLED IN FIRE THAT SPREAD RAPIDLY

Firemen Worked Heroically For Six Hours Before Getting Fire Under Control, Montreal Being Asked To Send Aid—Valuable Library Containing Over 200,000 Volumes Saved, As Well As Two Wings Of The Building—Incendiarism Suggested But Theory Of Accident Probably Will Be Announced From Official Sources.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 4.—Two women and three men are known to have perished in the fire which swept through the central portion of Canada's magnificent parliament building last night, destroying the chambers of commons and senate. Several others are reported missing and it is feared they are buried in the ruins.

All night long firemen, police and soldiers fought to save the $6,000,000 structure, which is considered one of the finest examples of Gothic architecture on this continent. They were successful in saving the beautiful library building and the east and west wings of the main edifice.

Immediately after the fire started a report was spread broadcast that it was caused by the explosion of an incendiary bomb. The fire started in the reading room of the house of commons and several persons who were present at the time, including Mayor Medrie Martin, of Montreal, asserted that it was preceded by an explosion which knocked down several persons.

The bomb theory was however, rejected today by Colonel Sherwood, commissioner of Dominion police, who insisted that the conflagration was accidental.

The two women who lost their lives were Madame Bray, wife of H. A. Bray, a Quebec and Madame Morin, wife of Louis Morin, of Quebec. The men whose bodies still are buried in the debris are Alphonse Desjardins, a Dominion policeman, Alphonse Desjardins, his uncle and an employee in the building, and Robert Fanning, a waiter.

Among those reported missing is B. B. Law, a member of parliament for Yarmouth, N. S. Mr. Law is understood to have been at the house at the time the fire broke out and has not been seen since. He was alone in the city and the management of the hotel where he was stopping said he left here last night to go to the house, and that every effort to trace him since had failed.

J. B. Laplant, assistant clerk of the commons is also among those reported missing.

It was stated last night, Frederick F. Pardee, the liberal whip in the house of commons, also was missing, but it was subsequently learned that he went to Sarnia, Ont., yesterday morning and could not have returned before the fire.

The financial loss is difficult to estimate for the contents of the building were of great value. An early hour today it was believed the parliamentary library in a rear wing had been saved. While the fire was burning soldiers carried out many of its 200,000 volumes.

The parliament building was rated as one of the finest Gothic structures on this continent. It covered four acres on Parliament Hill.

Several persons, who were burned or otherwise hurt in fleeing through the corridors before the swift rush of the flames in escaping from the windows, are in hospitals today. One of those most severely injured is Martin Burrell, minister of agriculture, who was burned about the head. Dr. Michael Clark, member for Red Deer, suffered burns about the hands. Sir Robert Borden, the Canadian premier, escaped without injury.

Mme. Bray and Mme. Morin, guests of Mme. Sevigny, wife of the speaker, were trapped in the speaker's rooms. Mme. Sevigny dropped her two children into a fireman's safety net and then leaped into it herself as did another of her guests, Mme. Dussault, of Quebec. They escaped unhurt. When the firemen reached the speaker's chamber they found Mme. Bray and Mme. Morin unconscious. Vain attempts were made to revive them with pulmotors.

The origin of the fire can be determined only by an investigation which, it is understood will begin as soon as possible. The fire started in the reading room of the house of commons.

CROWD UNABLE TO AID WHILE WOMAN BURNED

(Associated Press Telegram)

Atlantic City, N. J., Feb. 4.—Five persons lost their lives and eight others were seriously injured early today in a fire which destroyed the Overlook hotel at Pacific and Mount Vernon avenues in this city.

The bodies of three of the dead still are in the ruins. Several of the injured are expected to die. The fire is believed to have started in the kitchen. When it was discovered, flames were shooting up the elevator shaft and soon afterward the entire building was burning. There were not many guests in the house, but most of them were aroused in time to escape. Their exit was cut off and most of them had to jump from windows.

One woman was seen to faint after calling for help from an upper window and was burned to death while her body lay across the sill in view of hundreds of persons unable to help her. The engineer of the hotel hung out of a window until the fire reached his hands and caused him to drop to the street. He was killed almost instantly. Another woman who managed to crawl out of a window fell and also lost her life.

The bodies of the dead still in the ruins are those of the parents of Richard Mott, proprietor of the hotel and Paul Hendricks, of Chambersburg, Pa.

The engineer who lost his life was identified as Nicholas DeRay. The fifth victim was Mary Johnson, the owner of a small board walk shop. Among the injured is John McCann, of West Hoboken, N. J. The loss is estimated at $150,000.

NO TRACE OF BODY FOUND; STOP SEARCH

Falling in their search to find the body of their father, Edward Hotchkiss, 61, 491 West Main street, in Raccoon creek, the two sons of the missing man, Friday, returned to their home in Michigan. Hotchkiss disappeared from his boarding house last Saturday and a note found in his room, according to the police, hinted at suicide.

The police were asked to search for the man shortly after the finding of the note, but the efforts have availed them nothing. Wednesday the two sons of the missing man came to Newark to aid the police in their search. An investigation resulted in the information that Hotchkiss had been seen in the vicinity of the West Main street bridge Saturday night.

The note with the alleged assertion that he would "do away" with himself, led the sons to believe that the man had leaped into the creek. Officers Hurlbaugh and Gorman, together with the sons, Thursday afternoon dragged the creek from West Main street to the Second street bridge.

Hotchkiss, according to information furnished the police, had been despondent over domestic matters and this is the only theory that would lead the authorities to believe the man had suicided. Police in the surrounding cities have been furnished a description of the missing man.

STATE

yond their own clubs and pocket-books. Government is a rank consumer. Many of its functions are of doubtful utility. It is supposed to protect the health, peace and safety of the people. But in practice it promotes the interests of the party in power with a lavish hand.

Auditor Donahay said detailed records on books of the auditor's department showed these expenditures. During the last fiscal year of Governor Cox's administration, state government spent $18,345,000; $1,633,000 more than the year previous. During the first year of the Willis administration, state government expenditures were $20,044,000.

The auditor made this comment on recent charges and countercharges made by Governor Willis and former Gov. Cox: "It seems that both of them have discovered a correct science of economy in the expenditure of public money, but the over-burdened taxpayer discovers no reduction in the current tax bills. Such political wrangles are meaningless and valueless. Each administration grabs the spoils and cuts off a little dribble here and there, and the over-worked political press bureaus herald the great economy to the folks back home. While the poor governor is perspiring at tightening the spigot, a few boards and commissions slip around and kick the burning out and economy does a-borning, and each year state expenditures increase a few millions."

Auditor Donahay said that "120 counties, cities, villages, townships and school districts have made tax levies this year in excess of the rates prescribed by statute. There are at least 1200 of these sub-divisions that ought to be in the hands of a receiver."

GERMANY

sion that the Lusitania negotiations have reached a point where German statesmen are called upon to make decisions of the utmost gravity. Germany's agreement to pay indemnity for the loss of American lives and goods submitted to the tribunal at The Hague, the question whether the torpedoing of the Lusitania was in accordance with international law, he says does not appear to have satisfied the American government which insists that Germany admit she was in the wrong. This would deprive submarine warfare of any legal basis.

Herr Bernhard does not believe that Ambassador von Bernstorff's new instructions empower him to abandon entirely Germany's previous position. He says everything now rests with President Wilson, who under the American constitution, enjoys

NO MORE BACKACHE NO MORE MISERY

Hundreds of people have been relieved of the agonies caused by weak, diseased or clogged-up kidneys by using Solvax, the new remedy that quickly reaches the source of all kidney complaints.

If you suffer with pains in your back and sides or have any signs of kidney or bladder trouble such as rheumatic pains, puffy swellings under the eyes or in the feet and ankles, if you are nervous, tired and run-down, or bothered with urinary disorders, Solvax will quickly and surely relieve you of your misery.

Solvax is the most potent remedy yet devised for ridding the system of uric acid and driving out all the poisonous impurities which cause such troubles. It neutralizes, dissolves and makes the kidneys sift out all the uric acid and poisons left by the blood, and renders the kidneys and urinary organs clean, vigorous and healthy.

T. J. Evans, the popular druggist, says that no medicine ought to be paid for unless it does the user some good. He therefore sells Solvax under a positive guarantee to quickly relieve the worst cases of kidney trouble or refund the money. Try Solvax today and if you cannot see and feel a decided change for the better just go to T. J. Evans and he will return it without question. This is the strongest argument that can be offered in behalf of any medicine.

QUICKLY STOPS HEAD COLDS AND SNUFFLES

Catarhal Germs Cause of Most Colds. New Germicidal Air Treatment Best Remedy For These Common Ailments.

Reliable authorities say that upwards of 90 per cent of the so-called colds in the head and throat are in reality dangerous indications of the presence of acute catarhal. When you hear a person sneeze or cough its almost certain they are throwing catarhal germs into the air for some other person to breathe and its just as certain that the person breathing these germs will soon have catarhal or a catarhal cold. The time to make these germs harmless and drive out your catarhal cold is the very instant you feel a desire to sneeze or cough, or start to snuffle and wipe your nose every few minutes.

The quickest and surest way to stop a head cold and drive catarhal germs out of your system is to pour a few drops of the oil of Hyomei (pronounced High-mee) into each of your inhaling devices which come with each large package and place the inhaler between your lips and breathe the germicidal but pleasant smelling air into your nose, throat and lungs. This air utterly destroys all catarhal germ life, quickly opens the closed air passages, makes breathing easy, clears your stuffed up head, cleans out your throat and ends your snuffing and nose blowing. There certainly is no quicker or more satisfactory way of breaking up a cold, even after it is well started, and a few weeks' use will do away with all danger of chronic catarhal. Sold by druggists everywhere including T. J. Evans who agrees to return the full purchase price to any who use it and are not satisfied. In buying Hyomei for the first time be sure to get the large size which contains the inhaler as this is very essential for best results.

powers such as European monarchs can scarcely exercise. It is precisely because of this situation that Germans must indulge in no illusions.

Herr Bernhard does not believe an immediate decision by Washington is likely inasmuch as the return of Colonel E. M. House doubtless will be awaited. He comments: "The President Wilson wholly reverses our new proposals without indicating willingness to accept a compromise, then the German government would be placed in the position of yielding further or of letting developments take their course. Yielding however, would mean abandonment of the whole submarine warfare. We can only express the hope that America still will recognize Germany's concession. If that is not the case we can nevertheless expect with certainty that no decision will be taken calculated to cast doubt on the dignity of the German people or to interfere with their vital necessities."

Dr. Alfred Zimmerman, under secretary for foreign affairs in an interview with the Associated Press, expressed the hope that the new formula forwarded to Ambassador von Bernstorff would offer a possible basis of settlement. However, he made no effort to conceal the gravity of the situation and was most explicit in his statements that Germany had reached the extreme limit of concessions and under no circumstances would concede the illegality of her submarine campaign in the war area.

"The government is willing to do everything in its power and has done everything in its power, to meet American wishes," he said, "but there are limits beyond which even friend-ship snaps."

"I do not understand America's course. We had thought the submarine issue settled and the Lusitania question on the way to arrangement—had agreed to pay indemnity and all that—when the United States suddenly made its new demands, which it is impossible for us to accept."

"You must not push your demands too far. You must not attempt to humiliate Germany."

Dr. Zimmerman declined to discuss these new demands or the instructions to Count von Bernstorff more precisely, but he left no doubt that the whole crisis centered on Secretary Lansing's demand that Germany disavow the sinking of the Lusitania as an act contrary to international law. The under-secretary did repeat repeatedly that Germany could not possibly admit this procedure was illegal or make concessions which virtually would take the submarine weapon out of her hands. He asserted again and again that if the United States desired to drive matters to a breach, Germany would go no further to avoid it.

NO COMMENT

Made at State Department—President Read Berlin News.

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Feb. 4.—In the absence of official information, Secretary Lansing today refused to discuss any phase whatever of the Lusitania negotiation. It appeared at the state department, however, that if officials regarded the situation as seriously as it is reflected in Berlin dispatches, it was not permitted to appear on the surface. Something definite may take form after President Wilson returns to the capital this afternoon.

President Wilson read the Berlin dispatches on the situation while his train was running between Baltimore and Washington. He made no comment but members of his party said they regarded the situation as "unfavorable." It was said the president had not finished considering the official dispatches he received last night on his train.

Secretary Lansing said today that a report had reached him of Germany's latest answer to the Lusitania negotiations as reported in dispatches from Berlin.

Early today the instructions had not reached Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador.

Body Found in Hallway—Five Other Women Victims of Fire in Brooklyn Home.

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, Feb. 4.—In a fire which destroyed the Brooklyn home of Mrs. Casimir Tag, early this morning, six women lost their lives. Mrs. Tag, widow of the president of the German Savings Bank, escaped, but two of her daughters perished. The dead are Miss Caroline and Miss Helen Tag, daughters of the late Helen Tag, president, Hannah E. Snaveley, cousin of Mrs. Tag; Jennie Stehman, a nurse, and Anna Cain and Lizzie Cain, servants.

Miss Caroline Tag, awakened by the fire, called a fire headquarters operator and a sh-gave the location of her home she said:

"I am being overcome by smoke." Her body was later found in a hallway where she had gone apparently to warn other members of the household. The bodies of all the victims were found in rooms and hallways on the third and fourth floors.

Miss Tag was engaged to be married February 15. Her father was prominent in the tobacco industry as well as banking.

BUCKET

an inspector in the Blue Sky bureau of the banking department, assisted Superintendent Hall in arranging preliminary plans for the coup. He reported that he had been able to deal with all the shops except that in Fremont, where the proprietor became suspicious and refused to accept orders for stocks.

The banking department was almost deserted today by male deputies, all of whom had been pressed into service to direct the raids in company with county prosecutors or police officials.

"Ohio has struck the first blow and we trust the only blow necessary to halt a conspiracy which reaches from the Atlantic seaboard as far west as the Missouri river," said Mr. Hall. "Bucket shops cannot live in a bull market, when stocks and bonds are increasing in price. Three months ago there was not a single shop in the country. Their reappearance marks the belief of illegitimate stock gamblers that a bear movement is at hand, when securities will drop in price. The bucket shop is an unchangeable game with a thimble-rig attachment."

He explained that fraudulent dealers in securities maintain what appears to inexperienced speculators a regular brokerage office. The establishment gets what is called "slow wire service" by telegraph and quotations marked on the boards are based either on these delayed quotations or on entirely fictitious figures. Actual "fast wire service" secured in an clandestine manner enables the managers to know what actual quotations are. They receive orders to buy securities, knowing that the price already has declined, and later when ordered to sell, notify the customer that he has lost on a decline. Transactions are not actually made; no sales or purchases are really made on the floor of any legitimate stock exchange.

The entire transaction is on the books of the bucket shop only. The establishment may lose on some orders, but it aims to strike an average of profit from dealings with inexperienced speculators.

One of the most spectacular of the raids was at Toledo, where a score of men assisted Prosecutor D'Alton in entering the offices of the company there, it was said at the banking department.

Late reports were that the patrons found in the shops were arrested but later questioned and released.

Managers who were taken into custody, as reported to Mr. Hall early this afternoon, are: W. T. Hay (Marion); L. A. Freeman (Alton); Harry Eldridge, Toledo; Maurice Flynn, Dayton; Otto A. Draeger, Canton; W. H. Clark, Youngstown and Fisher, Youngstown.

The raid, timed for 11 o'clock, was so carefully arranged that all of the places had been visited by the authorities at 11:30, it was said at the banking department this afternoon.

ARREST AT DAYTON: OPERATOR HELD AS MATERIAL WITNESS.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Dayton, Feb. 4.—In the Dayton end of the bucket shop raid of state officials, William Rogge, who has offices in the Davis building, was placed under arrest upon a warrant sworn out by state banking department representative Ambrose today. His bond was placed at $1,000. Two charges were preferred, one selling stocks without a license and second, operating a bucket shop. Morris Flynn, Rogge's operator, is held as a witness under a $500 bond.

Bowser Wins Return Match With Con Albright Before 800 Fans in Straight Falls

Paul Bowser, Newark's grappling champion, Thursday night at the Music Hall, demonstrated conclusively to more than 800 fans that he is the master of Con Albright, of St. Paul, and is ripe for a championship bout with Joe Turner. Bowser also proved by his wonderful exhibition that he is the superior of all aspirants to the middle-weight crown.

The first fall was the longest in the history of the sport in this city. It went 88 1-2 minutes and was won by Bowser with the aid of a crotch hold and hammer-lock. The second session went 17 minutes before the local man secured a crotch-hold and a scissor-lock on the arms, pinning Albright to the mat.

Bowser met Albright at the Music Hall several weeks ago and the first fall went 76 minutes before Paul won with the aid of the deadly toe-hold. Last night by agreement the toe hold was barred and Albright was confident that he was invincible at this style of wrestling.

For over an hour and forty-five minutes the fans were beginning to see the force of Albright's argument, but then Bowser's wonderful power of endurance stepped in and it was the same old story. Class, embodying speed, science and endurance, triumphed as usual and Albright was slipped back into the discards.

The St. Paul man won the admiration of every fan present by his hard efforts and although suffering defeat, gave Bowser one of the hardest arguments of his life.

On next Thursday night Bowser will achieve the ambition of his wrestling career, when he meets Joe Turner, middleweight champion of the world, at the Music Hall. Turner has met defeat but once since he won the championship and that was at the hands of Con Albright. Bowser twice has defeated Albright, both with and without the toe hold, and it is the opinion of the fans in Newark that Turner's crown is in danger.

Bowser has disposed of every man he has met here since the game was revived and it would not be surprising to his followers if the championship crown changed hands at the Music Hall, February 10.

The Tuecher Brothers met in a return match in the opener and wrestled ten minutes to a draw. These miniature grapplers put up a great exhibition and made quite a hit with the crowd. John Heckelberry made his first appearance on the mat with Vance Wallace for his opponent, and while John is not a Stecher, yet he has the earmarks of a corner. This bout, a 15 minute affair, went the limit with neither man winning a fall.

"Doc" Darling, 110 Elmwood avenue, was a guest of the Advocate at the match and was one of the most enthusiastic rooters for Bowser. "Doc", who will be 91 years old February 11, and last night was the first wrestling match that he has witnessed since the days when he was a "rassler."

Youthful Bride Convinces Juvenile Court Her Marriage Was Legal —Court News.

Charles L. Moore has filed a petition in common pleas court against the city of Newark, which is an appeal from a decision of the civil service commissioners of the city. Mr. Moore alleges in his petition that after taking a civil service examination as a policeman he was duly appointed to the position of patrolman on April 2, 1906; that he continued in office until February 17, 1914, under his contract with the city, at a salary of $80 per month; that he has been and is ready to carry out his part of the contract. He asks that he be awarded $1,840, salary he claims due him from the city since Feb. 17, 1914.

Youthful Bride at Home.
John Cosine and his youthful bride, formerly Miss Lena Bera, daughter of Mrs. Adam Bera of North street, have convinced juvenile court officials that they were within their rights in being married in Covington, Ky. Mr. and Mrs. Cosine, together with the latter's mother, Mrs. Bera, called upon the officials and produced their marriage certificate and the groom exhibited the laws of Kentucky which permit females to marry at the age of twelve years. Mrs. Cosine also stated that she was fourteen years of age on Sept. 12, 1915. Until recently she was a pupil in one of the North End school buildings. Mrs. Cosine will reside with her mother until next summer when she will join her husband on a farm which he is operating east of this city.

BASKET BALL TONIGHT.
The Newark High basketball team will be out for revenge when they meet the Glenford five at Hickey's hall tonight, at 7:30. Last week Glenford defeated the local high team and the Newark boys will try and reciprocate for their defeat, by sending the visitors home a loser.

Previous to the game, two classes of Newark high will engage in a preliminary game.

ELIZABETH MOHR WEPT WHILE HER LAWYER ARGUED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Providence, R. I., Feb. 4.—Mrs. Elizabeth F. Mohr sat within full view of the jury today and wept while her attorney, John J. Fitzgerald declared in his closing argument that the state had failed to show she had hired two negroes, Cecil V. Brown and Henry H. Spellman, to murder her husband, Dr. C. Franklin Mohr.

Mr. Fitzgerald's address was the last word in behalf of the woman around whom the state had attempted to establish a murder plot charge. Counsel for Brown and Spellman concluded their arguments yesterday. Attorney General Rice was to close for the state in the afternoon, although it was not expected that the case would reach the jury until tomorrow, after the charge by Judge Sterns. This probably will be presented at the opening of the session tomorrow.

AUSTRIAN REPORT TELLS OF HOSTILE AIR OPERATIONS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, Feb. 4.—(By wireless to Sayville.)—The official statement given out yesterday by the Austrian war office as received here today is as follows:
"A Russian raid against our advanced positions northeast of Boyon failed."
"In east Galicia and Volhynia, there was pronounced activity on both sides by aeroplanes."
"A Russian squadron threw six bombs on Bucacz, killing two inhabitants and wounding several others. Another Russian aeroplane dropped a bomb northeast of Luc-drei which wounded Russian prisoners."
"An Austro-Hungarian air squadron successfully bombarded the districts west of Courthov and north of Zharaz."
"At several places on the Italian coast there was lively artillery fire. At the Tormina bridgehead the Austro-Hungarians by sniping operations enlarged their positions. In the trenches left by the enemy many dead and a large quantity of war material was found."
"Austro-Hungarian vanguards reached the district west of Kruvoa, Albania."

MANY LIVES LOST

Glass of Water
Before You Eat
Any Breakfast

Wash poison from system each morning and feel fresh as a daisy.

Every day you clean the house you live in to get rid of the dust and dirt which collected through the previous day. Your body, the house your soul lives in, almost becomes filled up each twenty-four hours with all manner of filth and poison. If only every man and woman could realize the wonders of drinking phosphated hot water, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexion; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

Everyone, whether sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

ESTABLISHED IN 1820

Entered as Second Class Matter
March 10, 1882, at the Postoffice at
Newark, Ohio, under Act of March 4, 1879.

It is considered unfair in basket ball to slug the opponents when the umpire is looking.

Flour at $10 a barrel is threatened, but the bakers can always pump more wind into the bread.

The principal competition at the winter resorts seems to be as to who shall be able and willing to spend the most money.

The school children claim they always give a teacher a fair trial before proceeding to break up her work.

When the Weather Bureau predicts a storm for today, the prudent man begins to think he must hunt up that lost umbrella for use day after tomorrow.

If President Wilson's speech-making tour has attracted as much attention as the departure of the ball teams for the training camps, he may consider himself fortunate.

If you keep your mouth shut the first time you buy an automobile, the dealer may not discover that you don't know the difference between the spark plug and the chassis.

From the pictures of the bathing suits worn at the winter resorts, it will be seen that they are highly successful toward the purpose for which they were designed and secured, that of attracting attention.

The feminine idea of Preparedness seems to be the best of all, and that is to keep well informed from the newspaper advertisements about the bargains in clothing and home supplies.

The Ohio School Federation, a political organization, headed by Mary E. Lee, which sought the destruction of the school code last winter and even enlisted Governor Willis' support, but failed in the legislature, is seeking to name the successor to Frank Miller, who quits as state superintendent of public instruction on February 15. They are backing John Davidson, deposed superintendent of Lima schools, now an instructor at Ada, and an opponent of the present school law.

State Convention.

The Democratic State Convention will be held in Columbus, June 1, 1916, by order of the Democratic State Central Committee, promulgated under the constitution and laws of Ohio. Apportionment of delegates was fixed at one for each 500 votes or major fraction thereof cast for James M. Cox for governor in 1914. The convention will be held for the purpose of deciding on a state platform and nominating candidates for presidential election.

Under the form of a resolution asking construction of the law the committee went on record as against any second choice for presidential candidate and had it recorded as the sense of the meeting that all Demo-

1789—Presidential electors chose president and vice president the first time, naming George Washington and John Adams.

1914—Revolutionists deposed President Guillermo Billinghurst of Peru and killed Prime Minister Varela.

1915—Alban J. Conant, noted American artist, died; born 1821. The German admiral declared the waters around Great Britain and Ireland to be a war zone and announced that it would destroy every enemy merchant ship found.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

Evening stars: Jupiter, Saturn, Mars, Venus. In the east constellation Leo may be identified by its outline in the form of a sickle.

President's admonition not to get impatient because there are long processes of debate in Washington, but to wait for the end of the debate; and the assurance that "things that are necessary to be done are going to be done and thoroughly done." Those were not merely phrases catching the fancy of a crowd. They were words which one felt answered to the convictions of men and women capable of convictions that are deep-rooted and sincere.

As to the speech itself, it was admirable in tone and content. It was restrained, as befits the utterance of a man whose official position gives his words extraordinary significance. It was deeply serious, as might have been expected in an address dealing with the most serious question which is likely to confront this nation for many years. It was patriotic with the patriotism of a man who feels America in his inmost being and holds fast to the ideal part of her.

There is no need here to report the arguments. They are familiar. They were not arguments, for the most part, but statements of indubitable facts as to our own ideals and national conditions in respect to defense and as to world-conditions over which we have no control. It is a matter of more practical importance to report the fact that Chicago heard the message of national defense gladly—that she sent through that Auditorium meeting a demand to Congress to look to the nation's safety.

Sandusky Municipal Mess.

(Columbus Dispatch.) Sandusky's experience with the commission form of government is unhappy. The commission of five has now been in office a month and, according to the Register, "not one thing of a constructive nature has been accomplished, and the meetings are nothing more than side-shows with bitter personalities and petty politics in the foreground." Similar to the Star-Journal declares that "for a month the commission has been wasting valuable time, quibbling over appointments, even attempting to dictate the manager's appointment of his own stenographer and otherwise trying to 'hog it' all, and make the manager and auditor-treasurer mere errand boys."

What is the matter? The commission lacks the spirit of service. At least three of its members are for the spoils, first, last and all the time, and the minority that would put public service first is helpless. So there is a demand for a recall of the commission and the election of men who have the grace to work together in the public interest, and both papers favor such an election at once, though they differ as to whether it is the duty of the commissioners should be recalled.

The people made a mistake. It was in their power to nominate and elect whom they would. Perhaps some of them thought that it didn't make much difference who got the commissionerships, since they had such a fine system of government. The result proves that, while a good form helps, it cannot make good government. Men who are capable and of the right spirit are still necessary. They are the substance, without which there must be failure.

When the people attend properly to their business, they will have officials who will properly attend to their business for them.

Foes of Preparedness.

(Philadelphia Record.) It is a curious fact that scores of thousands of conscientious and intelligent men, whose rational attitude toward the ordinary relations of life is as far beyond question as is their patriotism, should be doggedly opposed to the proposition that their country should take obviously needed measures to defend its interests and its soil against foreign aggression.

The opponents of preparedness are along with the rest of us, the employers of experts who represent us in dealing with affairs of government in the proper handling of which special technical experience and information are essential. These experts—military, naval, diplomatic and executive—possessed of knowledge which is necessarily a closed book to laymen, assure us that to maintain the honor of the country and to safeguard its rights in circumstances which they alone are in a position definitely to foresee, an immediate increase of our armament is imperative.

Men who do not hesitate to accept the advice of a physician in combating bodily ailments; who rely on the skill of a watchmaker to diagnose and remedy the disorder of a delicate timepiece; who trust implicitly in the counsel of a reputable lawyer after they have retained him to guide them through the mazes of the courts; who send for an expert mechanic to set in motion the balky wheels of an automobile; and who in all these and a thousand other cases concede the superior knowledge of specialists and profit by it, inconspicuously reject the conclusions of their well-informed governmental agents in so vital a matter as the preservation of the life of the nation, and insist on the general acceptance of their own ill-founded judgment that in any and all circumstances likely to arise the country is perfectly secure.

The fatuity of this attitude surpasses belief. Even the known facts which may readily be grasped by the man in the street do not justify the belief that this country may live forever in isolation from the world's embroilments and immunity its envious assaults, or that, menaced from without, it is adequately equipped to defend itself. But if they did, should the solemn warnings of the better informed, who speak from knowledge gained behind the screens of diplomacy, and of those whose business it is to study the power and the purposes of other nations, be thrown into the discard as the counsel of craft mingled with timidity or the idle vapors of imbecility?

We do not question the motives of the foes of the preparedness program, but we deplore their unwisdom. We have hopes of their conversion by enlightenment, and confidence that at any rate the sentiment of the country will overwhelm them. But if by any chance they should carry the day, and national disaster should come upon us through the realization of the worst fears of those to whose hands we have committed the welfare and the honor of the United States, God help the men who should have struck from our hands the weapons we were about to pick up with which to defend our homes, our country and our flag; for the wrath of the nation would be unstrained and its vengeance terrible. In time of national peril folly may sometimes work more harm than downright treachery. Let our councils be free from the sinister participation of either.

The Way To Prepare.

(Providence Journal.) It will not do to spend too much time discussing ways and means of putting the nation in a state of defense. The only way to prepare is to prepare.

Public sentiment is overwhelming in favor of rescuing the country from its defenseless condition, and yet Congress putters along, arguing generalities and postponing the establishment of a defense system.

The "people back home" in every State should bring immediate pressure to bear on their Senators and Representatives. They should let them know that the nation does not approve their dilly-dallying. Here is the session nearly two months gone and practically nothing has been done in the way of constructive legislation of any sort. The appropriation bills are in a chaotic state. The chief interest of a large group of our lawmakers is the pork-barrel. And this in spite of the fact that we are confronted with an international emergency graver than has existed for many years. We need a legislative body at Washington impressed with a sense of its responsibilities.

President Wilson proposes to do his part toward bringing home to Congress a realization of its plain duty. In other emergencies he has exercised his influence directly upon the Senate and House. He has adopted the old-time Presidential custom of delivering his addresses to the lawmakers in person at the Capitol, and has sought to shape legislation by conferences with the party leaders at the White House. But to meet the present need he will "swing round the circle," greet the voters face to face and rely upon them and the public press to let Congress know what is required of it. The same method has been used effectively by other Presidents and should prove useful now.

Pointed Observations

On the whole, "a people's lawyer" will not be out of place in the United States Supreme Court. It is the people's Court—New York World.

Whether vindicated in any of his remaining conceptions of the present war, Lord Kitchener certainly had a fine eye for length.—Washington Post.

Professor Channing, of Harvard, declares that George Washington did not have large brain power or much education. How fortunate! Otherwise he might have been a college professor instead of the savior of his country.—Kansas City Journal.

Still the Teuton and Turk should concede that the allies are blundering along fairly well for a lot of inefficient dubs.—Indianapolis Star.

Preparedness is as popular as the automobile, and there are about as many different makes of it.—New York Mail.

It looks as if the Jacobites in order to be logical will have to nominate Jane Addams for President.—Charleston News and Courier.

The Brandeis case almost serves as a touchstone, both comment and the source of the comment are interesting and instructive.—Springfield Republican.

Baltimore is giving a fine demonstration of preparedness. Against the occupation of the city by Billy Sunday, in the near future, the citizens are saving up their money for the usual indemnity that will be demanded.—Providence Journal.

Senator Harding expressed his approval of the Fairbanks Presidential boom at the Ohio Society's banquet, but he need not send explanations to Theodore E. Burton so long as he confines his activities to banquet halls.—Washington Herald.

A prominent business man who believes that the moral education of children is the greatest present need of the nation, has recently asked the National Institution for Moral Instruction to carry through a national competition for a prize of $5,000 for the best code of morals for schools and homes. He has furnished $2,500 for the expenses of the competition, and has become a patron of the institution for $200 a year.—American Magazine.

A Hint to Senator Weeks.
All who know the man agree that Senator Weeks, of Massachusetts, is a fine fellow and a man of ability, and that makes it all the harder to understand why he should waste his money on these special correspondence letters on yellow paper from Washington telling of his chances for the Presidency. In fact, he hasn't one. If he wants the place and not fall to rise to a disappointment.

Did You Know
That our robin is not a robin at all but a variety of thrush? The true "robin redbreast" is a European bird and much smaller than his American namesake.

A lady living on North Fifth street has a thermometer that should be an example to all other thermometers with yearnings for a higher life, or even to those of more commercial instincts desirous of rising in the world.

This humble little instrument knows that it is in the service of mankind and is determined to render this service acceptably.

When other thermometers are trucking to old Boreas, does he cringe with fear? He does not. On the contrary, he issues an ultimatum. He says to this bullying old god of winter, "I'm willing to make reasonable concessions. I'll come down to six above, but not one degree lower." And no matter how the enemy may roar and how with baffled rage, he remains unshaken in his determination to keep the temperature of North Fifth street within the bounds of comfort. Think of the courage and pluck it takes for a little fellow like this to pit himself against an infuriated giant. And not only this, but to win!

And he hangs there unhonored and unused.

Aunt Caline says: "I've known a good many ornery men in my time but the meanest one I've ever known is St. Berry. He makes his wife buy his chawin' tobacco outen her butter an' aig money."

Oh, My!
There was a girl in Newark discontented with her lot, She had this here restless feeling that the suffragettes have got. She was tired embroidering camisoles And envelopes and ties, And a sudden bridge had fallen on her since she had took a prize.

She pondered deep and when she spoke she said, "Now these here men, think women ain't got rights, so I'll proceed to show them then!" So she took a pair of scissors, cut her skirts off short until They barely reached her knee-caps and then, feeling kind of chill, She pulled her collar up so high she couldn't wink her eyes.

And remarked, "A girl who couldn't dress in style I should despise. I'd like to see a man who thought that he could manage me."

There's surely be one subject on which she would not agree. And she grew still more defiant as she swiftly elevated her gum, and exclaimed, "I'm independent, and I'm under no man's thumb."

FOUND NEW WAY TO INCREASE WEIGHT

THINKS MANY THIN PEOPLE GET NO MORE THAN HALF VALUE FROM THEIR MEALS

Run down Underweight men and Women Who Sought Missing Link Between Food Eating and Flesh Making Reported Gain From 10 to 25 Pounds.

If the sugar you put in your morning's coffee had not dissolved it would not have sweetened your coffee. If fifty per cent of the flesh, fat and tissue building nourishment of your meals is never assimilated by your body as waste, it is no wonder, you stay thin, run down, lack strength and are from ten to twenty-five pounds underweight. Numerous tests seem to prove that many thin people stay thin because of defective assimilation of their food. They eat enough but get little or no good from it and seemingly have missed the link between food eating and flesh making.

In an effort to correct this condition there has been found a preparation called Sargol which, taken at meals, helps to prepare the nourishing flesh-building properties of your food, so that the blood may more readily absorb them. Sargol's value is to develop the flesh building values in your food, to improve your assimilation and to check the wastes of valuable nourishment that may now be going on in your system. Its action is both natural and harmless and its results can be judged from the gratifying reports of many of its users who tell of weight increases ranging from ten to twenty-five pounds that followed its use. T. J. Evans, W. A. Erman, 33 North Third street and many other leading druggists are offering Sargol to their customers guaranteeing to refund the full purchase price where satisfactory weight increase is not obtained from its use for sixty days as directed.

There. No damage was done to the building, but considerable loss to the books, particularly those which were in the basement, was caused by water. The fire was under control about 5 o'clock though several streams were still being played on the interior.

Morning did not reveal any casualties other than those reported last night. Madam Bray and Madam Morin of Quebec who were caught and suffocated in a room and the three men who are thought to be buried under 15 feet of debris comprise the list. They were caught when a turret at the north side of the building fell. Mr. Loggie, who was reported missing, is now believed to have escaped. As yet, the debris where the three men are believed to be buried has not been removed. The fire started in the reading room of the house of commons. Colonel Sherwood says there is absolutely no ground for rumors that the fire was of incendiary origin.

"It started right under the nose of a policeman," he stated.

The fire spread with amazing rapidity but this may be explained by the contents of the room, papers, light tables, etc.

The report of a warning having been received from Providence two weeks ago, is officially denied.

The central part of the main building, including the chambers of both the commons and senate was destroyed but the front end walls apparently are in good shape. Both the east and west ends of the buildings are but little damaged with the exception of the roof and top floors. The towers were completely ruined, the superstructure falling with a crash though the masonry still stands.

An explanation of how the fire started which has been accepted by Colonel Sherwood, was supplied today by the policeman who was on duty at the senate entrance.

The policeman said that he saw a blaze in a pile of newspapers in the reading room. He attempted to put it out with a chemical extinguisher and failing, ran for help. When he returned with another extinguisher the fire had swept through the room and was beyond his control. The room was lined with wood and completely filled with reading stands and files of newspapers.

This explanation is supported by Mrs. Alphonse Berville, wife of a member of parliament for Montreal. Berville says she was in the reading room when a policeman ran in and tried to extinguish a blaze in some papers with a hand apparatus. She says he failed and that as she left the room the flames were spreading with tremendous rapidity.

In partial confirmation of this version, another policeman who was at the commons entrance to the reading room, insists there was an explosion in the chamber which burst the doors and swept him off his feet.

All hope has been abandoned for the safety of J. P. Laplant, assistant clerk of the house of commons, who was seen just before the fire started and is believed to have been buried in the ruins.

David Ewart, consulting architect of the public works department, today estimated the loss at $3,000,000. He said, however, that it would probably cost double that figure to replace the burned building.

COUNCILMEN RETURN FROM ELYRIA, OHIO.
Councilmen Dick Curry and Thos. E. Adams and Telephone Manager Charles E. Hollander, returned from Elyria this morning, where they have been investigating the police patrol system for the past two days. The councilmen report that they were favorably impressed with their investigation.

They stated that Safety Director Ciel Bigbee upon his return would probably recommend the adoption of the Elyria system for Newark. Director Bigbee and Chief Sheridan remained in Cleveland for a few days. Harvey J. Alexander, the other member of the party, remained in Elyria.

YOUNGSTOWN RAID.
Youngstown, O., Feb. 4.—County Prosecutor A. M. Henderson today led a squad of officers in raiding two alleged "bucket shops" here. W. H. Clark and H. M. Allen were arrested in one office and C. E. Fisher in another, charged with operating a brokerage office without a license. The men were bound over to the grand jury.

PETITION

CIRCULATED TO BRING YOUNG MEN TO ENLIST IN NATIONAL GUARD.

If They Are Assured Such Troops Will Not Be Called for Strike Duty.

A petition is being circulated by a number of young men in this city urging the state militia officers to exempt Newark company G, Ohio National Guards, from strike duty. C. V. Priest and Charles Walton, who are promulgating the movement to re-organize the disbanded company, feel that with strike duty exempted, they can secure for Newark a large organization.

Considerable opposition has been brought to bear in this city upon the local company by the labor unions and for this reason it is impossible to get a company of representative young men together. A state movement will probably follow Newark's lead, but this can be made a state ruling until a state constabulary is organized.

There are a great many young men in Newark who are interested in joining the company should it be exempted from strike duty. At this time it is reported that a number of students in Columbus are considering an organization to replace the Newark company which was mustered out last week.

"We are very anxious to have a local company in Newark," Mr. Priest said Friday, "but unless the company is free from doing strike duty, we cannot have one. There is great interest being shown by local men of prominence in the movement to re-organize, but we can not have their co-operation if the company is to do strike duty."

"Newark needs a military company and I believe with strike duty exempted we can organize one of the finest in the state," Mr. Walton said today. For the past ten years, the local company has been without the support of the majority of the citizens owing to its participation in labor strikes.

Mr. Priest and Mr. Walton, both are devoting considerable time and labor to the new proposition and feel assured that the state militia officers will act favorably on their petition when it is presented at Columbus next week.

WILSON'S SPECIAL THROUGH NEWARK THURSDAY NIGHT

President Wilson's special train bearing the executive from St. Louis to Washington, passed through Newark at 11:32, arriving in Washington this afternoon early.

PRESIDENT SLEPT UNTIL A LATE HOUR TODAY; REFRESHED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
On board President Wilson's Special Train, Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 4.—President Wilson was on his way to Washington today to take up with Secretary Lansing consideration of the Lusitania and Appam cases.

After six days spent in the middle west, in urging stronger national defense and describing the grave possibilities of the international situation, he was returning to decide international questions, of great importance.

The President was due to arrive in Washington at 1 p. m. He slept until a late hour today to recover from the effects of his strenuous trip, but planned to devote several hours to disposing of correspondence which accumulated during his absence.

WATER TOO COLD, GIRL REPENTS A SUICIDE ATTEMPT

Becoming despondent early Wednesday evening, Miss Ida Siler, 20, of 391 Sandusky street, Columbus, formerly of Newark, climbed over the railing of the Town street bridge in that city and plunged 30 feet into the icy waters of the Scioto. After her body struck the water Miss Siler decided the water was too cold for a pleasant death and fought her way to the bank of the stream.

She was taken to the hospital at the city prison where she was held for safekeeping until 11 o'clock that night, when she was taken to her home.

Miss Siler formerly resided in Vine street, this city, moving to Columbus about four years ago.

ARGUMENT TO SAVE LIFE OF A MURDERER

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Columbus, O., Feb. 4.—Governor Willis spent a large part of the afternoon today listening to arguments why he should commute the death sentence of Peter Skribner, Toledo murderer, whose execution is set for Feb. 11, to life imprisonment. Roy R. Stuart, of Toledo, Skribner's attorney, presented the claim that Skribner is insane. He cited queer actions of the condemned man during the last few weeks since the state board of pardons refused to recommend clemency and the supreme court refused to review his case.

DAMAGE CLAIMS OF TWO MILLIONS WILL BE FILED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Chicago, Feb. 4.—The period set for filing claims before the United States commissioner for damages in connection with the capsizing of the steamer Eastland in the Chicago river closes tonight.

Claims totalling $2,000,000, it is said, will be presented. More than $350,000 in claims had been filed with the commissioner up to today.

Chicago Grain
(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, Feb. 4.—Very unexpected higher cable quotations together with fears of domestic crop damage, led to a decided upturn in the price of wheat. The advances in foreign prices were explained by Liverpool dispatches saying that supplies continued to be of insufficient volume to meet requirements and that an active demand existed for all grades. Messrs. expressing apprehension as to the likelihood of crop injury same chiefly from Illinois, Missouri and Indiana. Opening prices, which ranged from 1 1/2 to 1 3/4, and July at 1 1/2 to 1 3/4, were followed by substantial further gains.

Later a sharp reaction in wheat took place owing to announcement that Germany would not admit its liability for the sinking of the Lusitania. The bearish influence of the announcement, however, did not have a lasting effect. Prices closed steady at 1 1/2 to 1 3/4, with May 1 1/2 and July at 1 1/2 to 1 3/4. Corn developed firmness, mainly in sympathy with wheat. Advances, however, were checked to some extent by prospects of larger receipts. After opening 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 higher, the market scored a slight additional upturn. The temporary sag in the market followed when the wheat market turned down. The close was firm at 5 1/2 to 5 3/4 net advance.

Oats responded to the strength of other grain. On the advance, though, pit traders sold. Higher prices of hogs lifted provisions. Offerings were scarce.

Weekly Wool Bulletin
(Associated Press Telegram)
Boston, Feb. 4.—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow, "The speculation and excitement of a week ago has subsided more or less, but the market is on a slightly higher level and a healthy, if smaller demand is still being maintained from the mill centers indicate a very healthy situation and manufacturers are in a very independent position. Contracting in the wool continues moderately at the basis noted a week ago."

Mr. Keedy is a thorough and accomplished manager of many years' experience.

AVIATOR CHATS

WITH FRIENDS
BETWEEN TRAINS

W. Leonard Bonney, American aviator who has frequently visited in this city and who had relatives here several years ago, stopped off here between trains today. Aviator Bonney is just back from the Licking county fair where he was at the Columbus headquarters. Bonney states that the fighting is nearly over in Mexico. He has no definite plans to announce just at present but may become attached to the American aviation corps. In case he does not he will arrange to give exhibitions, giving thrillers equal to any air feats ever attempted. He remarked to his friends here that he would like to make an exhibition at the Licking county fair next fall.

NOTICE OF SALE OF BONDS.

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Auditor of the City of Newark, State of Ohio, until 12 o'clock, noon, of Friday, February 18, 1916, for the purchase of bonds of the said City in the aggregate sum of $75,000, dated the first day of November, 1915, each bond being payable and for such amount as hereinafter set forth, and bearing interest at the rate of five per cent (5%) per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of May and the first day of November of each year, and the cost and expenses for which special assessments were heretofore levied for the improvement of various streets hereinafter designated, by paying, curbing and severing thereof, and under authority of the laws of Ohio and of Section 3214 and Section 3215 of the General Code of Ohio, and under and in accordance with certain ordinances of the said City, passed on the 6th day of December, 1915.

SPLENDID OLIO ARRANGED FOR ELK MINSTREL

One of the hits in the forthcoming photo playlet will be the one-act photo playlet "The Plans of Lost Run Mike or Villany Defeated." This picture has been filmed and will be ready for service on the nights of Feb. 14 and 15.

Three of the city's talented photo-play actors will be responsible for the picture, Messrs. Nelson Metz, Paul Morrison and Homer Glancy. Mr. Metz depicts the character of Jim Carley, an honest miner, Mr. Morrison takes the part of Clarice, Jim's wife while Mr. Glancy will be seen as Jack Dalton, the dignified villain. The final scene is a thriller and the play is sure to score a big hit.

James R. Cooper will be heard in an arrangement of his own, a specialty which is pleasing, entertaining, charming and delightful. All who have heard this talented young man being profuse in their praise of his ability.

C. B. Foster and J. E. Strait comedians of more than ordinary ability will amuse the audience with their talkology act and buck and wing dancing. The young men are two of the city's well known electricians and have splendid talent.

James Bird and L. S. English will do a novelty turn entitled "Bowery Sweethearts." The young men are novelty dancers and those who have witnessed their work state that they are better than many professionals who visit the city.

Jack Richards of Columbus will be seen in burlesque foot juggling with brass objects and claims to be the only artist in the world that really dances up-side-down. He is known over the vaudeville circuits as an equilibrist without a peer and the act will add to the merit of the Elk show. Mr. Richards is known to many Newark people, having opened up the East End Rink, which he managed for Scheidler brothers for some time.

The Four Musical Kings is a quartette of singing and playing musicians of which Howard Jackson, the noted young violinist of this city is a member. They leave a big vaudeville circuit for three days to participate in the Elk minstrel, coming to this city direct from Buffalo, N. Y., where they will appear the last three days of the week ending Feb. 12. The management of the Four Musical Kings promised the local minstrel committee several months ago that they would come to Newark to participate in the minstrel and they intend to keep faith.

C. E. WEEK AT THE MAPLE AVENUE CHRISTIAN UNION

Weak Women!

An Ohio Woman Testifies.

Warren, Ohio.—"I have found Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription just the medicine for a badly run-down condition and female trouble. I was dragging around, neither sick nor well. I used 'Favorite Prescription' four months and it made me feel like a new woman. I am most pleased to recommend it. Then I used 'Golden Medical Discovery' and it was just right for the troubles connected with that condition."—Mrs. L. B. ALLEN, 133 Belmont St., Warren, Ohio.

At the first symptoms of any derangement of the feminine organism at any period of life the one safe, really helpful remedy is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Tens of thousands of women have taken it with unflinching success for diseases of a womanly nature.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a true friend to women in times of trial and at times of pain when the organs are not performing their functions. For headache, backache, hot flashes, catarrhal condition, bearing down sensation, mental depression, dizziness, fainting spells, lassitude and exhaustion women should never fail to take this tried and true woman's medicine.

Prepared from nature's roots and herbs, it contains no alcohol nor narcotics, no harmful ingredients. In either tablet or liquid form. Write Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N.Y., to-day. 126 page book on women's diseases sent free.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original little Liver Pills. These tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules are the smallest and the easiest to take. One little Pellet for a laxative—three for a cathartic.

DEAL IS ON FOR CLEVELAND CLUB AMERICAN LEAGUE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Chicago, Feb. 4.—The Cleveland American League Club may be purchased by a syndicate of four Chicagoans, according to a story printed here today.

Two of the men reported to be in the deal are John V. Burns, a friend of Charles A. Comisky, owner of the White Sox, and Patrick T. Walsh a contractor now in Cleveland in connection with street railway affairs. Ban Johnson, president of the American League would not discuss the matter further than to say that the club might go to some one not a resident of Cleveland.

WOMAN SO WEAK COULD NOT SLEEP

Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

North Oxford, Mass.—"I had lost three children and I was all run down and so weak I could not sleep at night. My eyesight would leave me and everything I ate upset my stomach. I was very nervous and if I would start to sweep I would have to stop and lie down before I could finish. I was looking over the paper one day and read of a woman who felt as I did and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I took it too. Now I am proud to tell you I am feeling fine and have given birth to a boy baby. He is my 'Pinkham's' baby. I keep a bottle of Compound in my house always."—Mrs. PETER MARCO, Box 54, North Oxford, Mass.

Sleeplessness, indigestion, weakness, and nervousness are symptoms which indicate a lowered vitality of the female organism, and the tonic, strengthening properties of the good old fashioned roots and herbs, contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, are just what is needed by every woman who is in Mrs. Marco's condition.

For free advice in regard to any annoying symptom write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

AT ONCE! STOPS STOMACH MISERY AND INDIGESTION

"PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN" MAKES SICK, SOUR, GASSY STOMACHS FEEL FINE.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, let this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapepsin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so that the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES CAMPAIGN BULLETIN NO. 3

We are interested in our neighbors around the square and many of our decisions and plans are influenced by their experiences. Cities, also, are neighbors. They can help or hinder one another quite as effectively as do individuals. We offer for your consideration today the experience of Zanesville as told by the president of the Welfare Society of that city in his annual report. Keep it for study.

President's Annual Report.
"This being the first annual report of the Zanesville Welfare Organization, it is fitting to briefly state why the society was organized and what it is trying to accomplish."

"Many of our charitable workers, who, for years have given freely of their time and efforts in betterment work, and who were familiar with local conditions, felt the need of a central organization through which charitable societies might co-operate in serving the people. Many cities, more than twenty in Ohio, had by means of such plan introduced business-like methods in the giving of relief and had become more efficient in the prevention of poverty and suffering. The successful experience of these cities and the belief that similar results could be obtained here, led to the formation of the Zanesville Welfare Organization."

It does not supplant the work of any society, church, lodge, or other existing agency, but rather acts as a clearing house for all the charities of the city. It keeps permanent records and details of all cases and thus avoids much overlapping and duplication.

The right can not be denied any applicant to seek aid from any or all of our charities, but unless each agency receives the benefit of the others' experience, a demoralized state of things ensues. With proper registration, there need be no overlapping when it becomes necessary (as is frequently the case) for a family to receive aid from several agencies, food from one, coal from another, etc.

Modern or organized charity came upon the scene almost forty years ago and found the relief side of philanthropy quite generously, although not very efficiently attended to. But Organized Charity recognized that back of hunger and wretchedness and poverty were causes that must be understood and reckoned with in the solution of the problem. To know these causes and prevent them—to work for results that are final is the task of the trained social worker. Food and fuel and clothes help the surface sore, but it breaks out again tomorrow. The disease of poverty lies deep and it is this disease that Modern Welfare Work is trying to treat and cure.

From these statements it may be understood that the Zanesville Welfare Organization is not primarily a relief agency, although it seeks to meet urgent need promptly. It was not brought into existence merely to hand out groceries and coal and clothing to those applying, but rather to seek and remove the causes which make the application necessary. The

Dandruff Surely Destroys The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

purpose is to help the applicants to help themselves.

It is the common criticism of organized welfare agencies that the work of administration absorbs too largely a proportion of their resources, and that too little is expended in the way of direct material relief. The efficiency of a welfare society can no more be measured by the amounts of material relief which it dispenses than can a physician's skill by the quantities of drugs which he prescribes. Poverty and pauperism are abnormal social phenomena. The dependent stands in an abnormal relation to the rest of society, and the first great object of welfare endeavor is to restore him to normal social relations by helping him to help himself, by building up his character, by strengthening his will, by appealing to his self respect. This can be accomplished, not by doling out alms, but by patience, tact, judgment and kindness of trained social workers.

Because of the unusual conditions of last winter and the great number of people out of work, the demands for emergency relief were more than double what they would normally have been. The Welfare Organization could not have met this unexpectedly heavy drain on its resources had not the unexpended balances of flood subscriptions been turned over to it as shown by the treasurer's report. This money was largely expended in the redemption of cards given for work on our city streets. By this means many of our citizens badly in need of aid received help without subjecting themselves to the humiliation of accepting charity. The result of these efforts of the Welfare Organization is a convincing demonstration of the good that could be accomplished if the city had authority to give temporary employment on public work to those in distress.

It is to be hoped that there may rapidly grow in our community a sentiment in favor of making the relief and prevention of distress a public duty. The most significant movement of social betterment today is the feeling by those trained in welfare work that public administration must succeed private agencies because of lack of resources and authority. The only road to progress is the assumption of the whole responsibility by public agencies under the control of social experts.

However until this is brought about welfare work must depend upon private contributions. It will be noted from this report that the entire expense of the Zanesville Welfare Organization for the past year has been borne by comparatively few of our citizens. We trust a better understanding of the work of our society may lead to increased interest and to a larger number of contributors, thereby enabling it to carry out the carefully planned extension of activities outlined in the following report of the supervisors."

EDWIN S. GRANT, President.

To Free Your Skin of Hair or Fuzz

(Boudoir Secrets.)
No toilet table is complete without a small package of talc, for with it hair or fuzz can be quickly banished from the skin. To remove hairs you merely mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the objectionable hairs. This should be left on the skin about 2 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed, when it will be found free from hair or blemish. Be sure you get genuine talc.

MAKE PLANS FOR SUFFRAGE PARADE OF 20,000 WOMEN

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Chicago, Feb. 4.—Plans for a suffrage parade in which 20,000 women suffragists are expected to participate in the hope of bringing about insertion of a "votes for women" plank in the Republican platform, were made public today in an announcement by local advocates of the suffrage cause.

At a conference yesterday with local leaders, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National Suffrage organization, discussed the plan to bring women from all sections of the United States to march in the parade to be held during the Republican National convention in June.

UTICA R. F. D. NO. 2

Mrs. George Robinson, who has been on sick list for several weeks is now slowly improving.

G. H. Kirkpatrick's Spotted Poland China hog sale on Indian Mound Stock Farm one mile North East of Utica, Wednesday Jan. 26, was a grand success. Between two and three hundred came from far and near to attend it. Sixty-one head of sows were sold for a total of $2475.00. A large number of them were taken by neighboring farmers but a great many were shipped away to four different states. The prices varied from $30 to $75 per head, and the sale was marked by spirited bidding from start to finish, thus demonstrating that a sale of this kind can be a success in a community when you have the goods.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

IF CROSS, FEVERISH OR ILLIOUS GIVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS."

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given. If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see its tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour, bile gently moves out of its little bowels without gripping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and throat, thereby giving its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

DRY FEDERATION OF CHICAGO BEGINS ITS PREPARATIONS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Chicago, Feb. 4.—The Chicago dry federation started preparations today to have the "wet" and "dry" question placed upon the ballot in the spring city election in 1917. An attempt was made to have the question put on the ballot at the election next April but the required number of names to the petition was not obtained, the time limit having expired last night.

In order to have a place on the ballot 170,000 petitioners were necessary and only 87,661 were obtained.

MRS. WIARD TO SPEAK ON THE MODERN DANCE.

A good sized audience greeted Captain Wiard Thursday evening in the High school auditorium. Misses Kastla and Botts rendered a piano duet. Mrs. Gail Horn sang a solo. And Mrs. Swain and Miss Ayers sang a duet preliminary to the address of the evening. Captain Wiard was at his best and delivered his lecture, "Playing With Death," with telling effect. The pictures shown were unique and helped to drive home with telling effect the utterances of the speaker.

This evening at the First Presbyterian church there will be a short musical program following which Mr. Edmund Arras of Columbus will give a short address to be followed by Mrs. Wiard who will speak on "The Dance As I Know It." This address by Mrs. Wiard has aroused a great deal of curiosity and it is expected that the First Presbyterian church will be crowded. Go early in order to get a seat, and also to hear the musical program.

Saturday afternoon at 2:30 will be story hour for all children of the city. Mrs. Wiard will speak to the children.

Sunday afternoon a great mass meeting will be held in the First church and in the evening Captain Wiard will speak in the Second Presbyterian church on "The Game of the Gambler." Every one should hear Captain Wiard.

NOT SICK ENOUGH, PERHAPS

Many people who need a tonic neglect it because they are not sick enough to cause them any worse feeling than one of fatigue and discomfort.

They do not realize that the decline in their health is so gradual that they, themselves, do not realize how far from normal they are until the pale face, weak nerves, languidness and irritability attract the attention of friends.

Even then a tonic is the right remedy. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood and send renewed health and strength to every part of the body. The appetite is improved, the digestion is toned up, there is new color in the cheeks and lips, you worry less, become good natured where before you were irritable and you find new joy in living.

This tonic treatment is useful in dyspepsia, rheumatism, anemia and nervous disorders. In many cases it is all the medical treatment that is required. As a tonic for growing girls Dr. Williams' Pink Pills meet every requirement of the most careful mother.

Free booklets on the blood, nerves and diet will be sent on request by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be mailed on receipt of price 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50.

Tooth Loose? Watch out for Pyorrhea!

When you find a tooth that gives back and forth, even just a little, see your dentist at once.

He will find conditions which you might overlook. He will find a gum recession, even though slight, where the gums have pulled away from the teeth. And he will tell you that you have the dread disease pyorrhea.

From pyorrhea come by far the greater part of all tooth troubles. Unless treated and checked, it will result not only in the shrinking and malformation of your gums and of the bony structure into which your teeth are set, but in the loss of the teeth themselves.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today; or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Senreco Remedies Company 503 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

An Ideal Remedy for Nursing Mothers

Compound of Simple Laxative Herbs
Safe for Baby and Mother.

Constipation is a condition that affects the old, young and middle-aged, and most people at one time or another need help in regulating the action of the bowels. Harsh cathartics and purgatives should not be employed to relieve constipation, as their effect is only temporary while they shock the system unnecessarily.

A remedy that can be used with perfect safety for the tiniest babe and that is equally effective for the strongest constitution is found in the combination of simple laxative herbs known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and sold in drug stores everywhere for fifty cents a bottle. This is an ideal household remedy and should be in every family medicine chest.

Mrs. F. I. Barsolow, 18 Leslie St., Holyoke, Mass., wrote to Dr. Caldwell, "Syrup Pepsin certainly is fine. I gave it to my baby, Evelyn, and also took it myself. It is the only medicine I have been able to take without affecting Baby in the nursing. I have used it for all four children and it is fine; they like it and ask for it."

A trial bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can be obtained, free of charge by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

Golden Sun Coffee

Be Curious

Curious people seldom stay satisfied—they try new things until they get better satisfied.

You should try this Golden Sun Coffee, not alone because it wins the favor of nine people in ten who try it, but also because you will likely find greater satisfaction in it than in the coffee you now use.

There is a particular flavor in Golden Sun Coffee—due to the blend—that seems to suit 'most everybody. But you must try it once to see; that's all we want you to do—try one pound and let your taste decide.

Golden Sun Coffee is steel cut by the Golden Sun process. Sold by good grocers.

Obituary

Andrew Jackson Beals.

Andrew Jackson Beals, oldest son of Enoch and Catherine Beals, was born in Fairfield county, Ohio, June 15th, 1842, and departed this life for the heavenly life January 28th 1916, at the age of 73 years 7 months and 13 days.

Mr. Beals was married to Miss Melissa Adaline McIntosh on his 20th birthday. To this union was born seven children, four sons and three daughters, George Beals, Chas. M. Beals, Frank O. Beals, and Ross A. Beals. Mrs. Sarah Gorey, Mrs. Ida Slane and Mrs.

husb or tired to help his neighbors in need or in sickness. And now our dear loved one farewell.

This glorious warfare is past. The battle fought, the race is won. And thou art crowned at last.

The funeral was held in the Summit Universalist church, Monday, at 10 o'clock a m. Rev. F. M. Pitkins of Westerville officiating. Burial in Swisher cemetery by Moore and Smith.

Albert Porter.

The funeral services of Albert Porter, who died Thursday afternoon at his home 136 North Fifth street, will be held from the home Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Don J. Follis officiating. Interment in Cedar Hill cemetery. Friends are invited to the home but one interment will be private. Please omit flowers.

Albert Porter was born November 24 1830, in Tallmadge Summit county and was the son of Horace and Phebe Anna Porter. He spent his boyhood in Tallmadge and on November 24, 1868 was united in marriage to Miss Henrietta F. Matthews, daughter of Rev. F. D. and Lucretia S. Matthews. He remained at his home for several months following his marriage and later moved with his bride to Newark. He opened a music store in this city, and for many years was known as one of Newark's leading musicians. For several years prior to his retirement from business in 1889 he conducted a music store in North Park Place.

Albert Porter was a man of sterling integrity and although never appearing in the public limelight outside of his business dealings, yet he was known in hundreds of homes in the city for his kindness and many charitable deeds. He was identified for many years with the Second Presbyterian church in this city and was a member of the choir. He was the possessor of a pleasing bass voice and his services as a singer were constantly in demand.

Mr. Porter was endowed with a philanthropic spirit toward the needy and many were his acts of kindness to the unfortunate that came under his observation.

He was a member of the Associated Bible Students class, but on account of poor health has been unable to take an active part in the association's work.

He leaves to mourn his death besides a large circle of friends in Newark and Licking county, the widow and one daughter, Luda P. Porter, at home and one sister, Mrs. Ira Huston of Denmark, Iowa.

Thomas Glasford's Funeral. The funeral services of Thomas Glasford, the Baltimore and Ohio brakeman who was instantly killed early Thursday morning in the local yards, will be held from the home, 436 East Main street, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to our friends and neighbors for their sympathy and kindness, also for the beautiful floral offering during the illness and death of our beloved father, Jonathan Howell; Rev. Ward for his consoling words also Mr. Egan for the manner in which he conducted the funeral services. The Children.

Getting His Orders.

"So you're summoned as a witness, hey? Now you be careful!" "Keerful about what?" "I see a judge rebuked a man for not coming into court with clean hands. Look out fer that, and also be keerful to wipe your feet."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Taxi Turns Over.

Harry Murray, driver for the Sigler Taxicab line, early this morning narrowly escaped serious injuries, when the machine he was driving turned over at North Fourth and Hoover streets. Fortunately there were no passengers in the car when the accident occurred. Murry drove a little too close to the curb in making a turn of the corner and the machine was pitched over on its side.

Removed From Hospital. Walter (Cap) Wilson who was taken to the city hospital last Thursday to be operated upon for appendicitis was removed to his home, 164 South Fifth street yesterday, much improved.

Happy Cal Wagner. Many of the old time theatre goers will remember "Happy" Cal Wagner, the minstrel. He was one of the first men in the United States to organize a minstrel show. He died at a ripe old age several days ago at Syracuse, N. Y. "Happy" Cal Wagner visited this city years ago, playing at the old opera house under the management of J. H. Miller. "Happy" Cal had the knack of making friends wherever he played and he always could recall them years after when ever he played a return date. He retired from the stage in 1888.

Morning Matinee. There will be a matinee Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the Auditorium for the "Battle Cry of Peace."

Manager English arranged for the matinee in order to accommodate those who have not seen the great picture. All seats will be reserved and the price of admission will be 25 cents.

Germany (Continued from Page 2.) discuss the Berlin dispatches because he had not received his government's answer which was supposed to have started from the Berlin foreign office on February 1.

In official and diplomatic circles, the impression prevailed that the controversy now had come to hinge on whether the United States demands that Germany acknowledge the sinking of the Lusitania as an illegal act, or whether it demands that the destruction of the neutrals who were aboard be acknowledged as illegal. There was some speculation on whether the exact situation on that point had been fully understood in Berlin.

Out of many uncertainties, however, one fact stands out and that is that Count von Bernstorff recently transmitted the last draft of the agreement to Berlin after having submitted it to Secretary Lansing, the ambassador believed it would be acceptable to his government.

GRAVE SITUATION Between U. S. and Germany Reflected in Berlin Stock Market. (Associated Press Telegram) Berlin, Feb. 4.—(Via London.)—German-American tension was again reflected on the bourse, prices declining moderately in general, but war stocks more sharply. The afternoon newspapers for the most part abstain from discussion of the case, one exception being the Lokal Anzeiger.

In a column editorial, the Lokal Anzeiger says that a very grave situation has been caused by the Washington government suddenly insisting that Germany declare the sinking of the Lusitania illegal and apparently suspending the negotiation of all other unadjusted matters until such a declaration is given, the situation therefore now looking like "bend or break."

Germany, declares the newspaper, has shown by indisputable facts that she cherishes a sincere wish to live in peace with the United States. There has been no lack of words with a friendly ring from that side, it adds, but all the world now has "only one opinion of what American neutrality really means."

It has been maintained with considerable difficulty and things might go on as hitherto, in the newspaper's opinion if President Wilson is determined to persist in keeping up the present situation of ambiguity.

"But," adds the Lokal Anzeiger, "if he expects that in the Lusitania question, Germany will best a retreat which contravert all previous declarations, that transcends the bounds of possibility even for the warmest friend of peace. Never can a German government admit that a submarine commander did wrong in sinking in the war zone an enemy steamer laden to the guards with arms and ammunition. That were quite an intolerable notion and must be rejected."

"This was also perfectly well understood at the White House. If, in spite of it Secretary Lansing has put forth such a demand we can only conclude that he does not wish to reach an understanding with Germany."

STORE BURGLARIZED. Burglars late Thursday night forced an entrance through the rear door of the Tri-City Tea store, 391 East Main street, and stole the cash drawer containing about $3 in stamps. The cash drawer was piled loose with a screw driver. A number of packages of tea and other articles in the store also were taken. Police today were investigating what they believe to be the work of juvenile "raffles."

Gambia, West Africa, has an area of 3,619 square miles and a population of 146,101.

MRS. ELIZ. WALKER AN ENTHUSIAST FOR NERV-WORTH

Says It "Regulates the Bowels, Tones the Liver, Quiets the Nerves, Builds Up the System."

Mrs. Elizabeth Walker, 365 Granville street, mother of David C. Walker, has gotten the most wonderful results from Nerv-Worth. Mrs. Walker says:

"I had a general breakdown of the system, the same as most aged persons have. My back was weak, had severe nervous spells, stomach out of order—in fact the entire system was out of order."

"I purchased one bottle of Nerv-Worth of Mr. Evans and can truthfully say it has had very satisfactory results from it. I advise any elderly person who is not feeling just right to try this remarkable medicine and find out for themselves what this great medicine will do."

"Mrs. ELIZABETH WALKER. This telling endorsement substantiates the claim so often made that Nerv-Worth is the world's greatest tonic for the run-down nerves of aged folks, as many an endorsement printed in these columns heretofore has done."

Your dollar back at the T. J. Evans drug store if Nerv-Worth does not help YOU.

ENGLAND MAKES FORMAL DEMAND FOR SHIP'S RETURN. (Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Feb. 4.—Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, today presented a formal demand on behalf of his government for the return to British owners of the liner Appam, taken by a German prize crew. A new diplomatic controversy with Great Britain is foreshadowed as the United States practically decided to hold the prize is Germany's.

EAST LIVERPOOL RAID. East Liverpool, Ohio, February 4.—Harry and Andrew Malseed were arrested here at noon, charged with operating a bucket shop and dealing in securities without a license. They furnished $500 bail for a hearing. At Steubenville, H. W. White was arrested on a similar charge.

NO TRACE FOUND OF A ZEPPELIN WRECKED IN SEA. (Associated Press Telegram) London, Feb. 4.—No trace has been found of the Zeppelin wrecked in the North Sea with 20 or more men on board. He did not attempt to rescue them, as his crew was outnumbered by the Germans. It is thought the dirigible may have been one of those which made the raid over England on Monday night.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts to flush out your kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Well-known Local Druggist Says Everybody is Using Old-time Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

MODEST WOMEN SHRINK FROM TELLING THEIR CONDITION

THEY BEAR GRIEVOUS SUFFERING RATHER THAN MAKE KNOWN WHAT AILS THEM.

No Medicine on Earth as Beneficial For Such Ills As Is Tanlac.

The subjects of complaints peculiar to women is a delicate one, yet it is a plain duty to let these sufferers know that most of the derangements from which they suffer are due primarily to nervous debility.

Many a suffering woman influenced by shrinking modesty, has borne this grievous condition without complaint rather than make a personal appeal. When women say, "I am all run down, so nervous and weak," that means they are victims of the modern malady.

Such women, and they are legion in every community, suffer from headaches, backaches, loss of appetite and sleeplessness. Their spirits are always depressed and their lives are not the normally happy ones of their more fortunate sisters. Often, too, there are spells of nausea, weakness, or even fainting, that make them feel insecure and to wonder when they will be embarrassed, or even in danger because of their condition.

Such suffering women, Tanlac, the tonic, tissue builder, appetizer and invigorator, is ideal. Tanlac builds up the system, promotes digestion and proper assimilation of food, vitalizes the blood and brings back healthy color to the cheeks and real sparkle to the eyes.

Tanlac is being demonstrated at Hall's Drug Store by the Tanlac man and is for sale at Hebron by the Hebron Drug Co., at Granville by W. P. Ullman, at Utica by P. H. Richardson and at Ashville by D. H. Squire & Son. Read what Mrs. Warner, 39 1/2 S. 2nd street to say. "I suffered from pains in my stomach, bowels, back, heart and had catarrh. All of the ailments have been greatly benefited and I've now began to take the second bottle of Tanlac, and if that does me as much good as the one I have taken I shall be entirely relieved. I feel like a different woman and Tanlac is due all the credit for the change in my condition and I gladly recommend it."

Brother Meanwhile Remains in Jail
at Buffalo—Grand Jury Meets Monday.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 4.—The last link in the chain of evidence District Attorney Dudley is welding in the Orchard Park tragedy of Sunday night is the testimony of Grace J. Teiper, sister of John Edward Teiper, the prisoner held at police headquarters in connection with the crime. It is believed she will recover sufficiently to give a connected story of the happenings of the tragic night. Some doubt is expressed, however, whether she will tell her story, even though able to do so. Early today she awoke from her coma. When asked how she was hurt she said she had been pounded. With the grand jury due to convene Monday, it is believed there will not be much change in the present status of the case until that time.

Teiper's attorneys have announced that for the present they will take no step to force the issue of his release.

STILL IN JAIL

plied. The king and all the rest of royalty and friends thereof just doted on "Wee Willie," partly because of his personality, he said, and also because of his poetry.

Wakefield went to England, according to his story, to "engage in the business of stocks and bonds," but when England's aristocracy discovered that he was a poet, they took him up and made much of him, he asserted.

Wakefield admits he is a poet, having published two volumes. One of these contains 200 pieces of verse. It is entitled, "As I Journey On." The author can't journey on right away, but he is going to send for a copy of that volume to keep him in good cheer until he can, he says.

Poetry gave Wakefield the entrée into the best circles of England, he says. He declared that the Duke of Argyll especially admired his literary work.

Six years of association with the aristocrats of England really changed my accent, don't ya know," he explained. "I met the king oval there, as one is apt to do, and was friendly with him in an informal way."

Wakefield said he leased historic

Eitton Park, for ages the seat of the noble Montague family, during the summer of King Edward's coronation because he wished to entertain and be in the social whirl during the festivities attendant upon the crowning of his royal friend. He is said to have posed as an American millionaire.

"Those society people seemed to take to me," said Wakefield. "My own family is a very old one, dating from 1620, when the Pilgrims landed."

Wakefield admitted having operated in Newark but was disinclined to talk about his experiences there. He of course denied leaving behind him any unpaid bills, but seemed willing to talk of his operations on a larger scale in New York and Boston. He disclaimed any part in the alleged "rabbit scheme" by which he is said to have planned making for $15,000,000 fortune in the Philippine Islands. This story he called a newspaper yarn.

He admitted the truth of the $9,000,000 Spanish war loan story, styling this one of his minor operations. Wakefield has been much in the newspapers since he was 21 years old. He is 37 now.

COLOMBIA BALKS
AT REDUCTION OF INDEMNITY.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Feb. 4.—Unconcealed disappointment was shown today by Julio Betancourt, Colombian minister, over the action of the senate foreign relations committee in amending the Colombia treaty so as to reduce the indemnity the United States would pay Colombia from $25,000,000 to $15,000,000 and make the expressions of regret for the partition of Panama mutual to both countries.

The minister, in a formal statement, expressed strong disapproval of the proposed modification of the treaty, and predicted that the pact already accepted and rejected by his country would be rejected.

Indoor Life Makes Fat

Take Oil of Korein to Keep Weight
Down, or to Reduce Superfluous
Fat.

People who are confined within doors and who are deprived of fresh, invigorating air and exercise must take precaution to guard against over-stoutness, as fat acquired by indoor life is unhealthy and a danger to the vital organs of the body. Lack of exercise in the fresh air weakens the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, so that it is unable to produce strong muscles and vitality and the formation of unsightly and unhealthy fat is the result.

If you are 15 or 20 pounds above normal weight you are daily drawing on your reserve strength and are constantly lowering your vitality by carrying this excess burden. Any person who is satisfied in their own mind that they are too stout should go to a good druggist and get a box of oil of korein capsules, and take one after each meal and one just before retiring at night.

Even a few days treatment should show a noticeable reduction in weight, digestion should improve, energy return, footsteps become lighter, and the skin less flabby in appearance.

Oil of korein is inexpensive, cannot injure, helps the digestion and is designed to increase the oxygen-carrying power of the blood. Any person who wants to reduce their weight 15 or 20 pounds should give this treatment a trial. There is nothing better.

"These men said they would not die by the enemy's hand. They sang their national anthem and then one squad shot the others and finally killed themselves. The decks were covered with dead and awash with blood.

"When the ship began to founder, I slipped back into the water and swam to a plank on which several men were clinging, but who dropped off one by one. Finally, after being three hours in the water, I was picked up and taken to San Giovanni de Muna."
